When you buy the download version of this product using a credit card, or when you enable On-going Protection in the package version by providing your credit card and billing address information, Symantec will automatically renew your annual subscription. Symantec will notify you by email prior to expiration of your current subscription. Do nothing, and the regular subscription renewal price (plus applicable tax) will automatically be charged to your credit card. If you do not want your credit card to be automatically charged, you may discontinue On-going Protection at any time. Your order confirmation email will include the instructions for how to cancel On-going Protection. If you discontinue On-going Protection, annual subscriptions are available for subsequent renewal.
