I came across the following incorrect statement when browsing <http://www.freebsd.org>

"FreeBSD is available free of charge and comes with full source code"

Sadly I do not think this has been true for some time.

Perhaps this might be more appropriate wording:

--- index.xsl.old Fri Apr 29 01:19:15 2005

+++ index.xsl Fri Apr 29 01:21:22 2005

While you might expect an operating system with these features to sell for a high price, FreeBSD is available
free of charge

- and comes with full source code. If you would like to

+ and comes with partial source code. If you would like to purchase or download a copy to try out,
