Dear Eudora Customer:

Thank you for taking your valuable time to submit a bug report concerning a problem you have experienced with one of our Eudora products. We very much appreciate your feedback.

Please be aware that this is NOT the place to get technical assistance. We will only respond to your message if we need additional information from you in order to reproduce the problem you reported. If you need your question answered or are looking for assistance with one of our products, we have contact as well as other useful information available at:

<<http://www.eudora.com/techsupport/>>

In the future, if you would like, you can submit your bug reports to us via our web interface here:

<<http://www.eudora.com/developers/feedback/>>.

Again, thank you very much for your bug report.

Sincerely,

The Eudora Team

P.S. Check out the Eudora online Forums, where you can ask your questions and share your experience with other Eudora Users. The forums can be found here:
