

SunManagers: SUMMARY : ftp permission denied to write into folders created by the ft p session.

SUMMARY : ftp permission denied to write into folders created by the ft p session.

Source: <http://unix.derkeiler.com/Mailing-Lists/SunManagers/2005-01/0367.html>

From: sreenath sarikonda (sreeredhat_at_yahoo.com)

Date: 01/26/05

Date: Wed, 26 Jan 2005 11:43:52 -0800 (PST)

To: sunmanagers@sunmanagers.org

/apps was the mount point. I changed its permissions and remounted and it worked. If you try to delete a directory without aforementioned changes then you get the following error rm: cannot determine if this is an ancestor of the current working directory

Thank you,
Sreenath.

> Hello Guru's,
> Follwing the solaris hardening > priciples
> I set the default umask as 023 for the files in > /etc/default/login file for our new systems. I am > able > to create directories using ftp session. But I am > not > able to further descend into the diretories created > by > ftp session, in ftp session. However I am able to > descend into these directories using login shell.
> Here
> are the directory permissions.
> ls -ld /apps/commonfund/ (user home direcotry)
> drwxr-xr-- 9 user1 somegroup /apps/commonfund//
>
> ls -l /apps/commonfund/
> -rw-r--r-- 1 user1 somegroup local.profile
> drwxr-xr-x 3 user1 somegroup pace/
> drwxr-xr-- 2 user1 somegroup pace2/
> drwxr-xr-- 2 user1 somegroup pace3/
>
> I created pace,pace2 directories withing ftp > session.

SUMMARY : ftp permission denied to write into folders created by the ft p session.

SunManagers: SUMMARY : ftp permission denied to write into folders created by the ft p session.

- > But I am not able to write/read into them. Any help
- > would be appreciated. I trimmed the output.
- >
- > Thank you,

Do you Yahoo!?

The all-new My Yahoo! – Get yours free!

<http://my.yahoo.com>

sunmanagers mailing list

sunmanagers@sunmanagers.org

<http://www.sunmanagers.org/mailman/listinfo/sunmanagers>