On this side of the big pond these kind of opinions are regarded as highly entertaining, not to say amusing. Many Europeans see them as proof that many Americans and maybe even the average American has the intellectual capacities and education of a retarded four year old.

I think I just covered this ... thank the NEA and the public school system for that ...

Bob he means you. You are the one who is entertaining him. Oh the joys of having absolutely no self awareness at all.

I'm aware that this is quite insulting for many members of this group, but it is true I'm afraid. Many Europeans regard the US as kind of open air funny farm these days, and it is not quite seen as the shining example of freedom and democracy in the world as US politicians want to make their voters believe. It is not that the majority of the Europeans hate the US, but they don't feel any relationship with the US anymore. That is a shame, because after WWII the US was held in very high regard. We haven't forgotten the men that came here to fight.

and they are still fighting terrorism, but it seems you are not willing to help out in that fight ... so you have forgotten ... what have the europeans done since 9/11? Only Tony Blair has the backbone to help ...

Don't be idiotic. The Spanish, The Italians, The Dutch and a whole

load of other European countries are providing front line troops in Afghanistan. And many of the others haven't not because they don't want to help after 9/11 but because they fundamentally disagree with the US strategy post 9/11.

And what about Republican politicians? I'm afraid George W. is regarded as a moron, surrounded by something that closely resembles a criminal organization (the White House staff). To think that this group of people is known for its high moral standing in the world is just laughable.

actually, you have no room to talk ... 90 percent of europeans do not attend church ... your countries like the netherlands and Holland and others have become brothels ... your countries are lost in sin ...

Bob before you start ranting about European countries perhaps you should take a little Geography course. Hint Holland and the Netherlands are the same country.

so Hussein in Iraq was a monk? Just what have they done that is so criminal besides expose France and Russias behind the back deals with Hussein and company?

This is a battle again with the devil ... he tried to destroy the jews in 1940s and failed, but now has returned to try and destroy them because he knows his time is short ... God has stated in Revelation that He would make Israel a nation again in the last days, He would bring them out of the land of the north (russia) and has done it (fall of communism was a miracle) ... Ronald Reagan was our greatest president ... the time of the Gentiles is over, and we ARE IN the last days ...

And what about the Florida election fraud that brought mr. Bush in the White House in the first place? Indeed again a shining example of the high moral standards of some powerful Republicans.

there was no fraud ... what about all the dead voters and criminals who vote every year for the democrats? What about the democrats fighting the military vote in florida from counting? What about all of the voter mess in broward and other counties that were RUN BY DEMOCRATS? They were in charge of the ballots, and still couldn't win on a rigged recount ...

Re: Democrats destroying America ...

Obviously there are fine Republicans as well. Senator McCain for instance is a very respectable politician in my view, even if I don't agree with his views.

McCain is a democrat ...

Umm so how is he running for the Republican Nomination? He actually supported the Bush campaign in the 2004 election difficult trick if he had been a democrat.

Or are you referring to the fact that he is a little to the left of Bush.

In contrast to the present president, Bill Clinton is still held in very high regard over here. He is not mr. perfect (far from it), but people can relate to him.

I do not doubt that ... he is a playboy who committed adultery on his wife ... of course she does not care because she is only using him for her gain ... if he would not have won the presidency, she was ready to file for a divorce ... free sex and divorce is rampant in europe, so you should identify with fornicators and adulterers and liars ...

Bob prostitution is legal in some states in the US as it is in some countries in Europe. The UK for example has much stronger laws on pornography than the US and you can be imprisoned for selling DVD's in the UK that would be perfectly legal in the US.

Here is another data point, the US has the highest rate of teenage pregnancy in the developed world roughly 50% higher than the UK which sadly is in second place. Holland a country which you single out for much abuse has a teenage pregnancy rate roughly 1/10th of the US it also has a much much lower termination rate and a higher rate of teenage marriages. Amusingly the US rate is roughly 60% of the rate in the early 90's a change that is attributed by experts to Bill Clintons Social security reforms.

So please don't lecture us on relative morality you will lose as you always do.

Bob the Worldnetdaily is a thoroughly discredited publication do I have to remind you that every reference you have made to it so far has been comprehensively trashed.
